Message from the President

Hello Guild Members,

Your Guild is excited to share this season's musical line-up. We hope you will enjoy the wide-ranging concerts and events that will be presented.

Our October 1 season opener features the Diamonds. In 1954 this Canadian vocal group ventured to the United States to perform on the Arthur Godfrey Talent Show. They tied for first place and a recording contract soon followed. You are sure to recognize their many hits, some of which are listed in the article below.

We hope this entertaining evening of music will bring back many enjoyable memories. T. S. Eliot wrote, "You are the music while the music lasts."

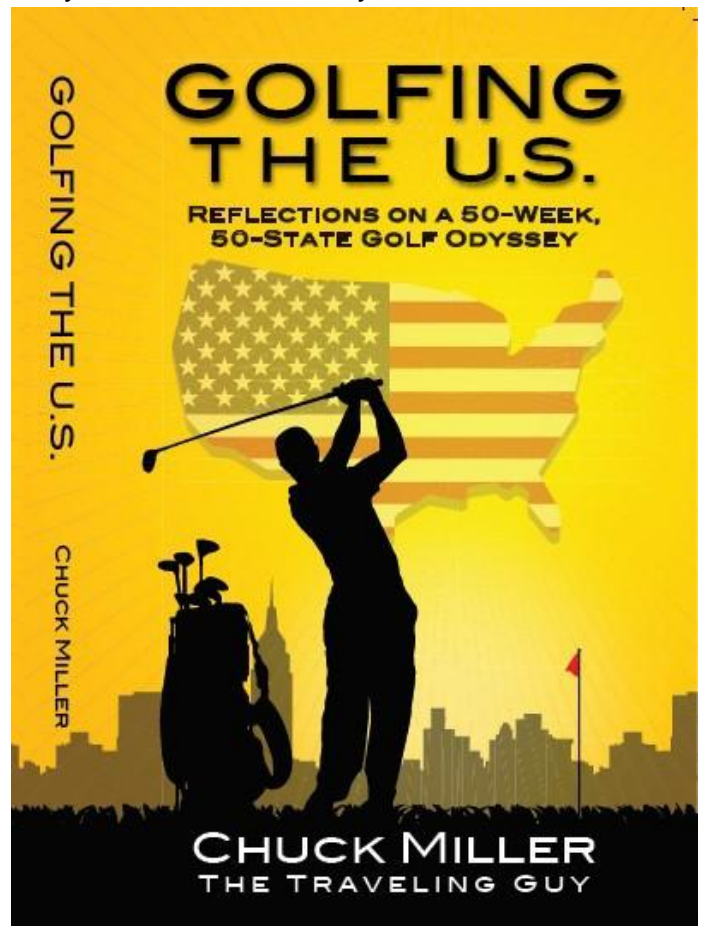

Looking forward to seeing you soon!

The Guild Will Benefit From Sales of a Book Written by Member Chuck Miller

The Hot Springs/Hot Springs Village Symphony Guild will benefit from the sale of a book written by Hot Springs Village writer Chuck Miller. Chuck is a free-lance golf and travel writer, motivational speaker, and radio personality. He will donate $2 for each book sold during August and September to the Guild.

In his book, Golfing the U.S. – Reflections on a 50-Week, 50-State Golf Odyssey, Chuck takes his readers on a vicarious 21,503 mile road trip throughout the United States as he reflects on his 2012 50-week, 50-state golf adventure. He writes about the 141 courses he played, the 126 hotels, motels and B&B's he stayed in, and the good, bad and ugly incidents that happened to him during his eleven and one-half months on the road.

According to those who have read his book, it is a fun, easy, and entertaining read for anyone who enjoys golf, travel, or reading about places they have visited, or may wish to visit.

If you missed the August book signing event contact Chuck at Chuck@TheTravelingGuy.com to arrange to get an autographed copy. You can also order his book directly from his publisher, CreateSpace, at CreateSpace.com.

Chuck is still donating to the Symphony Guild $2.00 from every book purchased during September. Books purchased from his publisher at CreateSpace.com are $14.95 plus shipping and handling.

Announcing a Special 9/11 Concert in Hot Springs

St Luke's Episcopal Church and the Hot Springs Music Festival will present a concert of richly vibrant music by composer Phillip Schroeder on September 11 at 3:00 p.m. The concert will feature music for solo violin and piano, piano, electronics and chorus. The program is called "Time to Trust," which is the title of one of the instrumental pieces to be performed. The concert is free and open to the public. St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Hot Springs, is located at 228 Spring Street and is handicap accessible. For more information, contact Lynn Payette at 501-623-1653.

Season Opener Saturday, 10/1/16 - The Diamonds

Enjoy another of our great Burger Bashes in the Woodlands' Porte Cochere starting at 6:00 PM. Master Chef

Johnna will be cooking the burgers with all the fixin's on site. You can also select from a number of side dishes sure to please everyone. A special ice cream bar will be the hit of this affair.

Then join us in the Woodlands Auditorium for a walk down memory lane with the Fabulous Diamonds'. This is The Diamonds' third appearance in the Village, and you will hear Classic Rock And Roll with Today's Attitude. The Diamonds' 20 million seller, Little Darlin', has been dubbed "the National Anthem of Rock and Roll". They have 3 Gold Records to their credit - Silhouettes, The Stroll, and Little Darlin'. They appeared on American Bandstand 33 times and are featured on the soundtracks of American Graffiti and Happy Days. The Diamonds' are always updating their performances as they brings us some of the songs of the great vocal groups of the past. You may even hear some songs from the Four Seasons and Beach Boys. The Diamonds note, "We've been pleased to find a growing audience among all age groups. They love songs they can understand, remember, and actually sing the words to - today, tomorrow, or even 20 years from now."

We are especially fortunate to have ReMax as the concert sponsor for this program. As Jim McKeand, program vice-president stated, "ReMax has been a longtime supporter of the Symphony Guild and its philanthropic efforts."

We thank Clara Nicholosi, owner of ReMax/Hot Springs Village or her and ReMax's commitment to "giving back to the community they serve by supporting the arts in the Village."

Tickets to Burger Bash III are $15, and tickets for The Diamonds' performance are $25. You can purchase tickets for both events or just for the concert at the Ponce de Leon Center, Monday-Friday from 9:00-2:00, by visiting www.hsvticketsales.com, or by following the links below.
